IN THE SUPREME COURT OF MAURITIUS

(Commercial Division – Before the Hon Judge in Chambers)

In the matter of:

AFRICAN NETWORK INFORMATION CENTRE (AfriNIC) LTD (IN RECEIVERSHIP)
Applicant

v

CLOUD INNOVATION LTD

Respondent

And in the matter of Ex Parte :

AFRICAN NETWORK INFORMATION CENTRE (AfriNIC) LTD (IN RECEIVERSHIP)
Applicant

WHEREAS after reading the Judge's Order made in Chambers on the 14th day of May, 2026 by Hon. L. Aujayeb, Judge; upon the application of Mr. Attorney N. Ramasawmy, for the applicant and after taking cognizance of the praecipe and affidavit, both dated 14 May 2026 together with the documents thereto annexed, and being satisfied that the matter requires His immediate intervention before notice of the application is served on the respondent;

IT IS ORDERED that an INTERIM ORDER in the nature of an injunction be issued restraining and prohibiting the respondent, its affiliates and/or subsidiaries, officers, agents, préposés, representatives, whether directly or indirectly from issuing, publishing, disseminating or causing to be disseminated, any publication, representation or statement which falsely attributes to the Supreme Court of Mauritius, any judicial approval, endorsement or validation of the leasing or commercialisation of AfriNIC-allocated IP resources.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the respondent, its affiliates and/or subsidiaries, officers, agents, préposés, representatives or otherwise howsoever, to forthwith remove, disable access to, retract and/or cause to be removed from all websites, online platforms, publications, press releases and social media publications under their control, custody or direction, any publication, statement or representation suggesting, implying or stating that the Supreme Court of Mauritius has allegedly sanctioned, endorsed, approved or authorised the leasing, monetisation, transfer and/or commercial exploitation of IP address resources allocated by the applicant.

IT IS ALSO ORDERED THAT the above interim order to remain in force until determination of the present matter and that service be effected on the above-named respondent to show cause, if any, why the present interim order should not be made interlocutory.

The above interim order in the nature of an injunction is issued at applicant's own risks and perils, and upon his undertaking, through his attorney to abide by any order which the Court may thereafter make as to damages to the respondent by the granting of this interim order in the nature of an injunction.
